

Teach in Japan

- *Will you hold a degree in any discipline by July next year?
- *Are you a UK passport holder?
- *Are you looking to have an unforgettable experience and add an international dimension to your CV?

If so, the JET Programme offers a unique opportunity...

Since 1987, over 10,000 UK graduates have taken this opportunity to join one of the largest initiatives in educational and cultural exchange ever attempted. Every autumn the Japan Exchange and Teaching Programme recruits around 150 - 200 UK graduates to two basic job types, with departure to Japan scheduled for the following summer.

It is the only such scheme organised by the Japanese government.

1. Assistant Language Teacher (ALT)

ALTs work within the school system to promote inter-cultural understanding and improve English language tuition.

(Japanese language ability or teaching qualifications are not required)

2. Co-ordinator of International Relations (CIR)

CIRs work in local government offices to promote and develop programmes of cultural exchange.

(Japanese ability sufficient for everyday work is a requirement)
